ADHD /ASD Assessment Recommendations for girls (U16)

Clinical Partners Group- recommended very highly by two families I have worked with.

Dr Trudi Rossouw very thorough and has an exceptionally good manner with children and young people. I have had several first-hand accounts of how good her and her team are with girls especially. Based in St Albans www.trudierossouw.co.uk

Dr Patti Rios at DATs. Dr Rios diagnosed my children. Unfortunately, she is unable to prescribe medications and so if you were wishing to explore the option of meds make that clear when you call initially so she can advise you. In my daughter's case, Dr Rios brought in a consultant psychiatrist to take care of treatment following diagnosis.

Honeyman – a great review on a trusted FB Group. Builds relationship and has excellent rapport with the child and parents and really understands ADHD and ASC girls. She is based in North London. www.drhoneyman.co.uk

Dr Alex Edwards – Recommended by a friend of mine with a young, complex needs daughter – have been said to have listened really well, noticed lots of additional things and then produced a thorough and informative report promptly. Specialises in Autism.

Drs Takon & Dr Ozer – both currently working in Hertfordshire NHS Trusts- and offering private assessments for less than £500. They are highly regarded by many people. They share a PA; Sarah Edwards and if you want to enquire you contact her and she can advise on availability and costs etc. T: 07801 532099 E: pinehillwork@hotmail.com

Dr Vinod Tyagi Consultant Paediatrician, MBBS DCH MRCPCH- A glowing recommendation from a family I have worked with. Pvt Sec. Loraine Scripps T. 07716 342269

Dr Srinivas Gada- Consultant Neurodisability Paediatrician - A glowing recommendation from a family I have worked with; in particular mentioned a very thorough approach, exploring all possibilities. www.drsrigada.co.uk

Dr Georgina Hibbert - Child Clinical Psychologist treated and diagnosed several girls I have worked with; both the family and the girls have spoken highly of her approach and professionalism. www.georginahibbert.com
